

I am opposed to the sweeping media ownership changes the FCC is considering at their June 2 Meeting. I believe that the changes will consolidate media power in the hands of a few conglomerates and will be a threat to our democracy. We need more media voices not less! Sincerely, Robert A Josephs